Dear PRB:

I have less than 60 days before my book, Debriefing the President: The Interrogation of Saddam Hussein, is to be published. I still have no answer from you as to when my book will be cleared for publication. I was told on 15 April that my request for clearance would be expedited. That was 45 days ago.

I understand the volume of work that you must have and, if time was not a factor at this point, I would try my best to be patient. However, that is no longer the case. I must have an answer from you and a cleared manuscript that I can give to my publisher soon. Again, my publication date is 2 August 2016. I would greatly appreciate your efforts to move this forward and bring this matter to closure. Thank you.

Sincerely,
John Nixon
